At Last! A Garbenstangle!

At last, for the edification and education of a breathlessly waiting public, we unveil to your eager eyes, a garbenstangle.

This is not, of course, the only garbenstangle, and it may be quite different from the garbenstangle you own. But it has been selected by the judges (a group of undistinguished men who are prejudiced about everything) as most representative of the uncommon, non-garden variety of garbenstangle.

The garbenstangle pictured here is the product of the brain (or at least the pen) of Dave Nissen. This type of garbenstangle is not peculiar to Antioch, although some people seem to be under the impression that it is.

This garbenstangle bit, in case you do not read the Antioch News faithfully (and if you don't, I don't know why we bother to explain) originated in an ad in the classified section of our paper. We advertised for a five wheeled garbenstangle, with right-handed zoenstift and power diplock. We received several solemn and interesting responses from avowed possessors of same. So we offered a prize for the best drawing of a garbenstangle. And have received some delightful ones.

The decision as to the best was difficult. The winner, Mr. Nissen, receives a gift certificate for $5.00 to Klass Men's Store. All other entries will receive a year's free subscription to the Antioch News. All drawings will be on display in the Antioch News window.

Drawings were submitted by: Dave Nissen, the winner; R. W. Gallimore, Rt. 2, Box 318, Antioch; Pat Gorlitz, Rt. 5, Antioch; Mrs. Joan M. Kenimer, Lake Villa, Ill.; John Emma, 613 Hampshire Lane, Lake Villa; Kenneth Meyer, Jr., Rt. 1, Box 554, Antioch; someone who signed his drawing simply "R. C."; Paul J. Richter, Rt. 1, Box 112B, Trevor, Wis.; D. Himeloch, Garden Grove, Calif.; Shirley Reichenbach, Rt. 1, Box 116, Antioch.

We thank all who wrote in and submitted drawings in response to our ad. We've had a lot of fun, and we're sure you did, too.

Candidates To Speak At School

The Channel Lake Community Club has scheduled an Open Forum to introduce township candidates for Town Supervisor and Road Commissioner to the people next Thursday night, March 28, at 8 p.m.

Candidates will be introduced, speak to the people and then answer questions from the floor.

Candidates for supervisor are Marvin Heath, incumbent "Red" Murrie, George Mazzuca and George Boyd.

Running for Road Commissioner are Blaine Ring, Dick Waters and Harland Roettiger.

The public is invited.

Athletic Banquet At High School Monday Evening

Aspiring athletes from the Antioch High School will be the honored guests Monday evening, March 25th, when the Antioch Lions Club will host their 23rd annual Athletic Banquet.

The athletes and their fathers will attend a dinner and ceremony honoring their feats of the past year. The featured speaker for the evening will be Alex Agase, line coach on Northwestern University's football coaching staff.

A native of Evanston, Agase had the distinction of being named All-American guard three years. This feat was made even more unusual as it came while he was attending 2 different schools.

Agase was named All-American once from Purdue where he was a Marine trainee in 1943 and twice at Illinois, 1942 and 1946. Following his graduation in 1947 he played professional football with the Chicago Rockets and the Cleveland Browns. He served as coach of the Dallas Texans for one season and closed out his playing career with the Baltimore Colts in 1953.

After two years as line coach for Iowa State he accepted an appointment as line coach at Northwestern. Agase served in the Marine Corps during the war and was awarded the bronze star and purple heart. He is married and has two sons, Michael and Steven.

William Seemann is the Program Chairman and Geo. Hawkins will serve as toastmaster for the evening.

One of the highlights of the program will be the presentation of the outstanding athletic trophy by Lions President Leonard Roblin. This trophy is awarded annually to the outstanding athlete of the year.

The committee on arrangements for the affair is William Seemann, chairman, Albert Dittman, Ward Lear, and Homer LaPlant.

"Red" Murrie, Candidate For Town Supervisor

Lloyd "Red" Murrie is a candidate for a third term as a County Supervisor.

A lifetime resident of the Township, he has operated a business in Antioch for 28 years.

He has been a member of the Rescue Squad for 23 years and a member of the Moose and the Lions.

Red and his wife, Louise, daughter, Marilyn, and son, Mike, live at Lake Marie.

Red says he has always conducted the affairs of the Township in a business-like manner, which is evidenced by consistently maintaining the lowest tax rate in the entire county.

During his term in office, he says, he has gained an intimate knowledge of all Township and County offices, which is essential today, he feels, because of the rapid population growth and other changes.

Red says he has 100% attendance at all Board of Supervisors meetings.

He feels that many important issues will be confronting Lake County in the future which will require experience and aggressive leadership. He feels that the years he has spent on the County Board make him best qualified to represent these interests.

The biggest issue at present, Red says, is the proposed Zoning Ordinance. He says he is against it because it does not provide for the economic growth of the western portion of the county; it places people's property in a non-conforming use without giving them proper notice; the proposed ordinance, in most instances, is condemnation without representation. If he is elected, he says, he will insist that the supervisors be more fully informed on all actions to be presented by the Planning Commission.

NICC Presents Aquarium To G.L. School

The Northern Illinois Conservation Club presented six aquariums to the children of Grass Lake School at the PTA meeting Monday, March 18. NICC president Richard Waters pointed out the remarkable progress which has been made by the teachers and students in conservation education since the subject was introduced into the classroom early last year. At a recent science fair at the Antioch High School, Grass Lake School students' exhibits made a clean sweep of all the awards in the conservation category.

President Waters was introduced to the parents assembled by Edward C. Cooney, assistant supervisor of conservation education for the state, who recalled that Grass Lake School was the NICC's pilot project in the Nature Laboratory and Children's Tree Planting program, with over 1000 pine trees planted on the school grounds, and with more to be planted this coming spring. Cooney was the catalyst between NICC and Grass Lake School in getting this project started. More schools are introducing similar projects, Cooney stated.

William E. Brook, NICC vice president and prominent Antioch banker, in presenting the aquariums to the school, said this equipment will enable the students to expand their conservation and nature studies.

Presiding for the PTA was Mrs. Lorraine Cerk along with Mrs. Roblyn Golden, vice president and school principal; Mrs. Betty Flint, secretary and Mrs. Margie Yopp, treasurer, all newly elected to serve for the coming year.

President Waters announced the NICC's coming field trip to the Kettle Moraine Forest for the Boy Scouts in the area and invited the Grass Lake Troop to be guests of the Club.

formed on all actions to be presented by the Planning Commission.

Another issue, Red says, is the proposed new courthouse. "The record will show," Murrie says, "that two years ago I was one of the supervisors who fought this proposal, and was successful in having an amendment included in the original resolution which said that an Auxiliary County Building would be built in central Lake County."

Red points out that he is

presently 15th in seniority on the County Board. He has served on the following committees: County Home Committee (chairman), Job Description and Salary Evaluation, Public Works, Public Building Committee, County Officers, Liquor Commission, Committee on Committees (chairman), and Committee on Rules. As chairman of the County Home Committee, he was in charge of planning and constructing the recent addition to the County Home. This addition, Red says, cost about $600,000.00 and was built without any more revenue.

Asked why, if the County is collecting more taxes than are needed to meet expenses, taxes are not reduced, Red said, "It is my belief that taxes are not lowered because every time a referendum is held and approved to float a bond issue for a new school taxes necessarily rise. Other examples are the creation of a Forest Preserve District, and the County Health Dept., both depart-

Liaison Group Set Up By Health Dept.

A Food Sanitation Advisory Committee for the Lake County Health Department has been established, it was announced today by John G. Morris, Director of the Department's Division of Environmental Health.

This committee will provide the health department guidance on various aspects of its food sanitation program and serve as a liaison group between their organizations and the health department.

Mr. Morris said that food service establishments and the health department have the common goal of serving the citizens of the county and protecting the community health and that a cooperative group such as the Food Sanitation Advisory Committee can help every one do a better job.

Some of the people who will serve on the Advisory Committee and who attended the organizational meeting at the Bien Venue in Libertyville were: Jack Huff; Libertyville; Emil Michno, Gages Lake; Joe Stenek, Antioch; Mrs. Hazel Hawkins, Lake Villa; and Felix Langenbach, George Archdale and Joe Bechmann of Waukegan.

Representatives of special groups, with special problems, such as summer resorts, Mr. Hostick said, Lake County Health Dept., said, will now be able to present their problems and suggestions for solution through the liaison group.

Board OK's Apartment Building At Special Meeting Saturday

In a special meeting Saturday afternoon the Village Board granted permission for a conditional building permit to be issued to Charles Cermak. Cermak is the representative of J. Lind Builders, a firm desiring to build a 36 unit apartment building in Antioch. This is the latest of several appeals made by Cermak and the special session was called at his request. All expenses incurred by the meeting will be paid for by him. The structure is planned for the vacant property at the corner of Tiffany Road and Lake Street, just across from Lorenz's Country House. The meeting was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rudolph of Tiffany Road who voiced their objection to the proposed structure.

Board member Ernest Glenn pointed out that "Mr. Rudolph did not live within the village limits and the board's first obligation was to the residents of the village."

Rudolph objected on the basis of the increased traffic the building would cause on Tiffany road and Lake Street and that he felt it would decrease the value of his property."

Village Attorney Edward Jacobs said that "the builders of the apartment would be required to extend sewer and water to Tiffany road and thereby increase the value of all property lying in that area at such time as it is incorporated into the village limits."

Mayor Cunningham said "ample off street parking must be provided and a playground for the children included in the plans before permission can be granted."

After some discussion permission for the building permit was given with the condition that:

An off street playground containing a minimum of 5000 square feet be provided.

That surface water drainage shall be regulated to prevent blocking of outlets from existing field tiles.

Off-street parking at the rate of 1 1/2 cars per each dwelling unit or a minimum of 54 cars be provided.

The builder will install municipal sewer and water to the premises in accordance with plans approved by the village.

Set back lines of 34 feet from the right-of-way line on Tiffany Road; 34 feet from the right-of-way line on Lake Street, and ten feet from the east line.

Also that all buildings and structures will conform to existing village building codes.

The 36 unit structure will be built in three units facing Lake Street. Charles Cermak was unavailable for further comment on the building.

Fay's Adds Eatery To Gift Shop

Fay's Toys and Gifts on North Main St., is adding an ice cream and pizza parlor to the establishment.

The restaurant portion of the business will be on the first floor and will open a week from Friday, March 29. The second floor is being remodeled and the toys and gifts which are a regular feature of the establishment will be displayed on this floor.

Fay Kelsey, proprietor of the business, says hamburgers, pizzas, short orders, ice cream, etc., will be served on the first floor.

GOP Dinner Heath Blasts Wild Spending March 30th By County Board of Supervisors

Republican Men's Club announced plans for their 5th annual fund raising dinner this week. Lorenz's Smart Country House will again be the site for the affair.

The dinner is scheduled for Saturday, March 30, at 7 p.m. and U. S. Congressman Elmer Hoffman will be the guest speaker for the evening.

Tickets for the benefit may be purchased from members of the Republican Men's Club.

Eight Students Make Honor Society

Eight Juniors and Seniors at Antioch Township High School will be inducted into the National Business Honor Society at impressive ceremonies on March 17, in the high school cafeteria.

Miss Dora Beattie, moderator of the local National Business Honor Society chapter announced the five new members who are outstanding business students at the high school. Three seniors who have complete a year of probationary membership will receive cards in recognition of their achievements in business education.

Requirements for admission to the National Business Honor Society include an overall 2.8 scholastic average and a 3.0 average in all business subjects. In addition to scholastic rating, candidates must meet specified Professional Attitudes.

New members of National Business Honor Society are: Ellen Enis, Carol Lasco, Terry Starnam, Judy Van Patten and Barbara Zeeman.

New Manager For Antioch Jewel Store

Mr. A. John Keyzer was recently promoted to Manager of the Jewel Food Store at 426 Lake Street, Antioch. Previously, he was Assistant Manager of the Jewel Store at 999 Elmhurst Rd., in Randhurst Shopping Center in Mount Prospect. He has been with the firm since July, 1960.

Mr. Keyzer and his wife, Marianne, live at 2802 Cardinal Drive, Rolling Meadows. They have five children: Joseph, 9; Michael, 6; Edward, 4 and Gregory, 6 weeks.

Harland Roettiger, Road Commissioner Candidate

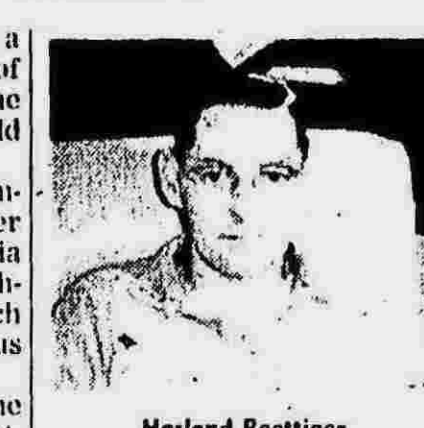

Harland Roettiger, 40, is a candidate for the office of road commissioner in the township elections to be held April 2.

Mr. Roettiger and his family—wife Audrey, daughter Sandra Jean, 13, and Marcia Lynn, 2 1/2, live in the south-west section of Antioch Township, in the Lotus School District.

The family has lived in the area for 14 years. Mr. Roettiger originally came from Platteville, Wis. His wife is a native of the area.

Harley is a carpenter. What experience he has in building and maintaining roads he gained as a member of an armored tank division in the army. Where roads or bridges were needed, they built them themselves, he says. This, together with common sense, an ability to ask questions, and experience in the building trades, should be sufficient knowledge, he believes, for a working road commissioner who wants to do a good job.

Roettiger feels that portions of the township are sadly neglected so far as road maintenance goes. He believes that a better job could be done with the material at hand if a man worked at it and insisted that his crew did a good job. He has been in charge of crews in constructing buildings he says, so has experience in supervision. He, himself, is experienced with all types of heavy machinery, and would expect to make the job of road commissioner a full-time job if he were elected.

Harland is probably unique in one respect—he has not done any campaigning or advertising, and does not intend to. He feels strongly that party politics should not enter into elections at the township level. If elected, he will maintain the roads impartially, he says, without regard for certain areas.

Mr. Roettiger has been a member of the Lotus School Board for five years.

Eckert Back In Hospital

George C. Eckert, 73, of Indian Point, is back in Victory Memorial Hospital.

George spent some time in the hospital last October when he fell out of a tree. When he re-entered the hospital on March 10 he was put in the same room he occupied a few months before. Also in the same bed.

His hospital stay this time came after he fell on the ice and broke his hip.

THE FOYER: The artist's conception above is of the lobby in the new Lake County Museum of History to be constructed on county owned land north of Libertyville. The lobby will be adjacent to a patio and garden and will be available for social functions and small club meetings, as well as serving as an attractive entrance to the new museum.

"He's Such A Nice Guy"

A chaplain who attended Eichmann during his imprisonment in Israel told of his association with the man who murdered thousands of Jews. He commented that the frightening thing about Eichmann was not his cruelty or viciousness. It was the fact that in all respects save the one which concerned his crime, he appeared to be a "nice" man. A kindly, normal, intelligent human being. His conscience did not bother him, because he simply had a "blind" spot in his conscience. He could not believe that he had done a wrong in carrying out an order to perform what he considered a necessary action.

Eichmann is an extreme example of a simple truth. A man can be a very nice guy, with many admirable traits, and still do great wrong because of one "blind spot". Convinced of the basic rightness of his cause, he believed that any means justifies the end.

A good many of our public officials seem to suffer from blind spots of this type. They apparently become convinced that the majority of the people are too stupid or too lazy to make their own decisions. They undertake to force upon the populace sweeping reforms to benefit the common man, who frequently has no desire to be so benefited—especially as he ultimately has to foot the bill for his benefits.

"It constitutes the greatest good to the greatest number", is a solemn pronouncement often given to end all objection to some sweeping reform. America was not founded on the precept that all must bow to the will of the Majority. The strength that founded America, that carried her victorious through all wars and internal struggles, was the conviction that each man had a right to live by his own convictions, so long as he did not harm others.

Eichmann believed that the Jews must be eliminated from Germany. So he murdered them wholesale, and felt that he was doing the right thing.

Not many men will commit murder to accomplish their ends. But many "nice, kindly" people have blind spots in their reasoning, coupled with a strong desire to force their ideas on others.

The obvious criminal, the crook, the crackpot, are comparatively easy to deal with. But the Lord deliver us from the kindly, strong-minded, good-intentioned mistaken man who is determined to push benefits upon us.

The Value of Advertising

The value of newspaper advertising has been clearly demonstrated during the recent strike in New York.

With no newspapers being printed, a drop in retail sales has occurred despite efforts of stores to substitute radio and TV advertising for the newspaper space they formerly had.

It doesn't make much difference whether you have the best values, the most courteous clerks, and the lowest prices in the area if no one knows about it.

Word-of-mouth advertising used to work out very well. There was little competition and many people traded at the same store their parents had patronized.

Now, with numerous items clamoring for attention, and with the barriers of distance gone, intensive advertising has become a necessity of not only business but of civic enterprises, clubs, candidates for office, etc.

Not all advertising is done through paid ads, it's true. The club that has news notes in the paper, the politician who tries to keep his name before the public via the news story route or personal interview, the business that sends news stories to the paper, are all doing a form of advertising. The familiar name, the well-known slogan, are the ones that spring to mind when it comes time to buy, to vote, to donate to charity.

Even a smile, a courteous greeting, are a form of advertising—an ad that says, "I'm a pleasant, courteous fellow."

No one can deny the value of a smile. And since the New York newspaper strike, no one can deny the value of advertising.

Along The Way

with ANNIE MAE

Apparently the mud-slinging that's going on isn't in any of the political campaigns, but rather it is being done by cars driving thru Oakwood Knolls. Both the ravages of a bitterly cold winter to septic systems, and the unsettled earth of last summer's sewer project, (still unable to be used by O. K. residents) have caused a "Muddy Road Ahead" for most everyone in the Knolls.

THE LATEST REPORT: The Police Committee of the Village Board must have come to some desirable agreement on hours worked and days off, for that "smiling cop" Jim is back in uniform. Three hips and a hooray for the article Sheriff Larson had in another sheet last week, finally exposing those Deputy Sheriff badges for what they are! Practically worthless!

The race for Township Supervisor may have some interesting points brought out if the tale-carriers continue what they've started. Someone, who should be mighty proud of a "job well done," is Norm Jedele, past president of the Antioch G. S. board for the tedious work of compiling a reference book to be used by any future board. . . . Mr. Fossmark, High School English teacher, was so proud of that new Baby Boy last week, that he couldn't help taking a few minutes of each class to tell his students about it.

FORGET YOU NOT: If you would like to meet the township candidates you will be able to at Channel Lake Comm. Club next Thursday, March 28.

THE LAST DROP: Talk has it that a good idea would be to have all of the candidates running for the Village Board, appear at a "Town Meeting." This gal wonders just how many people would show up at such a meeting. It would be interesting to hear from some of you on this subject. . . . they were only teasing when they painted

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DUKIN

Have you been having trouble remembering all the numbers in the all-digit telephone dialing system? Does the string of numbers on your new check stub throw you for a loss? Does the thought of becoming a faceless number in the huge maw of government bureaucracy fill you with dread?

Then take warning. There is abroad in the land a move to institute uniform numbering of all county highways, township roads and state and federal highways.

This would mean that all county roads would have a definite number or letter combination and the township roads would have similar efficient designation symbols.

This would also mean the elimination of such colorful and exciting designations as Aptakisic Rd., Grub Hill Rd., Fort Hill Rd. or Riverwoods Rd.

As yet there is no indication that the county highway department or the county board is contemplating such a drastic move, but with the progress and efficiency kick the county is on at the present time don't be sure that it can't happen here.

The number and letter system of designating local roads would undoubtedly be more efficient and would smack of progress, but it seems to us the cost would be awfully high if it meant doing away with some of the historic names by which our roads are identified.

If I'm going to get lost I'd rather get lost on Sylvan Woods Rd., Monaville Dr., or Grange Hall Rd. than on something called County Highway EH or Town Rd. 0123N.

The state legislature has under consideration some bills that would establish a flat two per cent income tax on all individuals working or doing business in the State of Illinois with part of the revenue going to the state general fund and part to a state income tax fund.

Under the proposal the county clerk of each county would notify the state how much each taxing district in the county levied so that the income tax fund could be tapped for part of this money.

This would result in an abatement of part of the tax levy and a resultant reduction in local taxes on real estate and personal property.

What isn't clear is the formula for returning the money to the local taxing bodies.

Will the total revenue of the income tax fund be divided equally among the 101 counties in the state or will it be apportioned on the basis of how much was collected from each county?

Wonder also what protection there is against the local taxing bodies levying in excess of their real needs so that the income tax refund will actually be an additional windfall.

The weekly digest of new bills in the legislative hopper makes interesting reading because many of the bills receive no headlines or space in reports from Springfield.

For instance, we recall nothing in the news columns about a bill introduced by State Representative Warren Wood calling for the nomination of U. S. Senator, all state officers, state senators, and state representatives by party conventions composed of precinct, ward, or township committeemen.

This would certainly shorten that little old ballot. And think of how much more economical and efficient. No more primary elections, no more decisions on your choice of candidate to represent you and your party in the general election.

Of course, to make it even more economical and efficient the total votes received by a candidate at the party convention could then determine the winner of the general election.

Volla! Look at all the money saved by doing away with the general election.

And then there is the bill which would make it mandatory for any authority filling a vacancy in an elective office to fill it with an appointee from the same party as the person who formerly held the office.

It's a good thing for Circuit Judge Phil Yager a law such as that wasn't on the books last December.

Heath Blasts

has also given the title of the present $200,000.00 courthouse property to the Building Commission. The Building Commission has no legal restrictions. There is no limit to how many buildings they can build. There is no limit to the amount of money that can be charged on the lease. There is no limit to the number of bonds they can sell. Taxes would have to be increased to guarantee the bonds would be paid off. Most important of all these things can be done without a referendum. The proposed courthouse is a 12-story building that is three times larger than the courthouse proposed in a referendum that was voted down in 1938 by the people.

On the subject of zoning, Heath went on to say, "The proposed zoning is so contrary to the welfare of the people and their rights that it should be completely reworked. It is so ridiculous that the approximately half-million dollars that has been spent on it is just another case of throwing away the taxpayers' money with no regard for their personal rights, or their tax dollar."

Heath also stated, "The Forest Preserve District has a 1963 'administrative' budget of $93,000.00. The Forest Preserve has a total of 485 acres. This amounts to an administrative cost of $193.00 per acre for one year. This is approximately one-half of the cost of the land per acre."

"This is only some of the wild spending that is going on at the county level."

In conclusion, Heath told why he is seeking office. He said, "I want to represent all the people of Antioch Township; I want to give Antioch Township more than token representation; I am able to give the time that is necessary to meet with the people I represent; I want to keep the people I represent informed and I promise that the people of Antioch Township will at last have a voice in their county government."

Refreshments were served afterward, and Mr. Heath answered questions asked by the audience.

The buyer of an automobile under a conditional sales contract who removes it from the county of residence can not be guilty of theft under the Criminal Code of 1931.

Attorney General William G. Clark has advised State's Attorney Harrison J. McGown of Douglas county.

DON'T QUIT

When things go wrong, as they sometimes do, When the road you are treading seems all up hill; When the funds are low and the debts are high; And you want to smile but you have to sigh; When care is pressing you down a bit, Rest if you must, but don't quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns, As every one of us sometimes learns. And many a failure turns about, When he might have won had he stuck it out; Don't give up, though the pace seems slow, You may succeed with another blow.

The goal you seek is just ahead; But your faith is weak and almost dead. Often the struggler has given up; When he might have captured the victor's cup. And yet he learned too late when he was down; How close he was to the golden crown.

You can never tell how close you are, It may be near when it seems afar.

So stick to the fight when you are the hardest hit, When things seem worse you must not quit; Trust in God and do the right, And you will never lose the fight.

Don't quit, whatever people may say, Just follow the straight and narrow way, Press on with faith and courage too, And the Lord will see you safely through.—Author Unknown—Reddick Courier.

GRACE CHURCH SLATES OLD-FASHIONED REVIVAL

Next Sunday evening the Grace Community Church is holding an "Old-Fashioned Revival Service" beginning at 7 p.m.

Guest evangelist will be the Rev. Colley L. Hunt of Lake Villa, a minister of long standing in the Southern Baptist Convention, who has been preaching for a half-century. Rev. Hunt was licensed for the ministry in 1916 and it was in that same year he began his formal ministry. He was ordained at Mars Hill College in 1924 and graduated from the Southern Baptist Seminary in Louisville in 1930. During his 50 years of ministry Pastor Hunt has pastored some of the larger churches in the southland with terms as a pastor in North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky, Indiana and Tennessee. As an evangelist he has held revival services in all of the southern states.

At the present time Rev. Hunt is in semi-retirement from the ministry while being employed by the Johnson Motor Company in Waukegan during the last few years.

Included in the evening service will be a rendering of "The Little Brown Church in the Vale" by the choir, vocal selections of gospel songs popularly sung by the previous generation, readings of yore, old songs sung by the congregation with instrumental accompaniment, and an old fashioned testimony service.

Antique articles with religious significance, which will be brought by members of the congregation, will also be on display.

"QUIET DAY" AT ST. MARY'S CHURCH

Mrs. Sibyl Harton, widely known author and speaker, and an outstanding British churchwoman, will conduct the Waukegan Deane Quiet Day on March 21 at St. Mary's church, 210, McHenry Ave., Crystal Lake.

Registration will be at 9:30 a.m., followed by the Holy Eucharist celebrated by the Very Rev. Robert E. Savage, dean of the Waukegan, Deane, assisted by Fr. Marx A. Jones. Women of all faiths are invited to attend.

Since only coffee, rolls and dessert will be provided, all are asked to bring their own sandwiches for lunch.

Campus News

JACKSONVILLE—Stephen Cobb, son of Rev. and Mrs. Donald M. Cobb, of Antioch, has been named to the honor roll at MacMurray College for the first semester. To qualify, a student must carry at least 14 hours of academic work and achieve an A minus average.

MacMurray, the first co-ordinate college in the Midwest, has an enrollment of 851, with 399 students in the Men's College, founded in 1955, and 452 in the 117-year-old Women's College.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES PLAN TRAINING PROGRAM

The Antioch congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses is making final plans to attend a three day training program in Gurnee, according to the presiding minister of the group, Mr. Robert Willett.

In discussing the arrangements with the congregation, Mr. Willett pointed to the challenge to Christian thinking and Christian works in the rising tide of apathy in religion.

"The object of the program," Willett said, "is to equip every one of the preaching fellowship of Jehovah's witnesses in the practical use of the Bible as a help in fortifying the spiritual morale of people in our community."

The discussion came as a climax to the weekly ministry - development program held at the local Kingdom Hall.

Willett said that Jehovah's Witnesses are enrolled in ministerial training of at least five classes weekly. "We maintain," he emphasized, "that if a religion is worth believing, it is worth putting into practice." Perhaps this accounts for Jehovah's witnesses being the fastest growing religious body in the world.

"For that reason, the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society, sponsors of the three-day Gurnee refresher program, have set the theme of the assembly as 'Right Kind of Ministers,'" he explained.

"We sincerely hope that the advanced training program planned for us there will enable us to live closer to the Bible and its teachings." The program is scheduled for March 22-24 at the Warren Township High School auditorium in Gurnee with the first session to begin at 6:45 p.m. Friday evening.

ANTIOCH WOMAN'S CLUB

Eberman of Route 3, Antioch, is now serving aboard the S.S. Hawaiian Motorist, operated by Matson Navigation Company Lines in the equivalent capacity of a Junior Officer. This is the third vessel he has served aboard during the Sea Year phase of the four year course offered by the United States Merchant Marine Academy, King's Point, New York.

This vessel will call at the ports of Honolulu, Hilo, Kahului, Port Allen, and Nawiliwili.

Upon departing from the Academy at the completion of their Plebe Year, Cadets are given a Sea Project to be completed during the Sea Year. The Project consists of a number of professional reports on ship management, celestial navigation and naval architecture, which is supplemented by detailed drawings.

The Project requires a considerable amount of time but will, in conjunction with practical experience aboard the vessel, enable the Cadet to obtain a thorough understanding of the various phases of ship operation.

Cadet Eberman will be graduated in July of 1965.

ALL ABOUT BABIES

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council
A NEW BABY BOOK
By William Kitzay
Editor, All About Babies

When three prominent physicians, men I know well and respect, urge me to read a new book on baby care, I find it difficult to resist.

Now that I've read "Bringing Up Babies" by Dr. Walter W. Sackett, Jr., a Miami, Florida family doctor, I can well understand their enthusiasm. The book, published recently by Harper, truly is a family doctor's practical approach to child care. It's a stimulating book indeed.

My three physician-friends have this to say about "Bringing Up Babies":
Dr. Walter C. Alvarez, Consultant Emeritus, The Mayo Clinic: "One of the most delightful and helpful books ever written for mothers, containing the wisdom of a man after my own heart."

Dr. Paul Dudley White, Past President, American Heart Association: "Mrs. White is reading it now and enjoying it highly; she thinks it is the most sensible book on the subject she has ever read and has now and then read me extracts from it, which seems to me first rate."

Dr. Laurence W. Kinsell, Director, Institute for Metabolic Research: "Dr. Sackett demonstrates that a little 'horse sense' is worth a great deal of fancy psychology."

"Bringing Up Babies" not only concerns itself with the infant, but also with prenatal care and the problems of bringing up the child and the teenager. What adds to its usefulness is its format: 382 subject sections that make for easy reading and ready reference.

The book's opening page should give you a clue to what follows. Not mincing any words, Dr. Sackett advises that frustration, applied judiciously from the very beginning, is a valuable technique in raising a child. If we want the child to become a self-sufficient adult in a world that is full of frustrations. Writes Dr. Sackett: "As a family doctor, I have had the opportunity to observe the practices of many mothers with several children, as well as young mothers struggling to do their best with an only child."

"In analyzing the family management techniques of the experienced mother compared to the beginner, one factor emerges with startling clarity: the mother of several children was able to devote less attention to each member of her brood, yet each successive child tended to be happier, healthier, and better adjusted. In a large family, the younger children learn more rapidly to accept the fact that the world does not revolve around them. My job, as I saw it, was to ternate. Mrs. Lupe Albright, Mrs. Ingrid Hawkins and Mrs. Barbara Reese will sing in the P.T.A. chorus at the convention on April 25.

Refreshments were served by the third grade mothers. The third grade also won the room count.

Exercise Your Car

The best way to get top performance from your car is to drive it, according to John H. Struben, director of the Chicago Motor Club's emergency road service department.

He pointed out that just as a person needs a certain amount of exercise to keep in good physical condition, a car should get more of a workout than the usual day-to-day driving.

Struben advised motorists to head for the open highway occasionally to exercise their cars. This doesn't mean, however, that you must drive at excessive speeds. It isn't speed your car needs—just a reasonable workout to keep it in good running condition, he said.

A brisk run at highway speeds, Struben added, helps to improve battery efficiency, removes carbon from the spark plugs, and frees sticky valves.

Your car's operating performance, work out a method whereby the newer mother can learn the lessons of experience without undergoing all the tribulations."

Ravenglen Farm Bull Wins Highest Award

Brattleboro, Vt. — Ravenglen Admiral Triuno 1370-471, a registered Holstein bull in the herd of Robert L. Hunter, Ravenglen Farm, Antioch, Illinois, has been officially classified "Excellent" — the highest designation attainable in the type classification program of The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

This highly select designation is applied only to animals scoring 90 or more of the 100 points representing theoretical perfection in body conformation.

Of nearly 65,000 Registered Holsteins officially classified for type last year, only 548 were rated "Excellent."

The Ravenglen Farm Holstein moved into the "Excellent" bracket for the first time during a recent classification of the herd by Roger

P. Denny, Frederick, Maryland — an official inspector on the staff of the national Holstein organization.

He scored 90 points. Animals scored "Excellent" in previous programs are not included in this listing.

The Classification Program — in continuous operation since 1929 — provides a universally recognized method of comparing the conformation of living animals with that of the True-Type Holstein cow or bull. Participation is currently at an all time high level.

Hospitals Get Radio Systems For Disasters

Through the joint efforts of Lake County Civil Defense, the Sheriff's Radio Communications Department and the cooperation of the hospitals in Lake County, a greatly improved system of communication is now being installed in all hospitals in Lake County. St. Theresa, Victory Memorial, Lake County T. B. Sanatorium, Lake County General, Condon Memorial-Libertyville, Lake Forest, Highland Park and Zion Hospitals will have this service.

The prime purpose of this new system of communication is to have a centralized hospital disaster system which will make it possible for the hospitals to communicate directly with each other, and with police at the scene of an accident or disaster; this enabling rescue personnel at the scene to direct victims to the closest hospital that can accommodate them. Precious minutes will be saved, as the hospitals can prepare for the victims while they are enroute to the hospital, and consequently many lives may be spared.

One of the most vital uses of the network will involve moving casualties to the closest hospital equipped to handle them. At a disaster scene, vehicles transporting the injured would be told which hospital is prepared to receive victims. Controlling the movement of the injured by radio, would eliminate bottlenecks at hospitals. No hospital would be overloaded, and equipment vitally needed at one hospital could be secured by placing a radio call to the other hospitals in the network. Identification of the injured can be simplified and inquiring families would know more quickly to which hospital the members of their families were sent.

When this communications plan was suggested to the various hospitals, it was enthusiastically received, in spite of considerable expense to each hospital in making this system possible. The Sheriff's Radio Department of Lake County is at the present time assisting the hospitals in installing the above mentioned radio communications system.

We may not admire everything about the government, but we do have to hand it to the Internal Revenue Service.

He who keeps himself in a stew eventually goes to pot.

SIDELIGHTS from SPRINGFIELD

By Sen. PAUL SIMON

Newspapers were filled with headlines recently when Alderman Benjamin Lewis of Chicago was murdered in professional style.

The chances that the murderers will be caught are slim. The men who performed this cruel business apparently were experienced at such an operation and left little evidence.

In a few weeks the incident may well be forgotten by all except the immediate family, the police who are investigating, and whatever political leaders were supposed to get the message.

But the incident should not be forgotten.

It is a bold example of a whispered link of Illinois politics: the link between organized crime and some political elements.

One important weapon in this constant war against the underworld could be the creation of an Illinois Crime Commission.

Senator Robert Cantfield, Republican of Rockford, and Representative Anthony Scarnano, Democrat of Park Forest, have introduced bills to create a state crime commission.

So far each session the proposals for such a measure have been defeated—as have been some other measures of more than casual interest to those who prefer to make their money the easy and illegal way.

During the last session when there was a big furor over the "bingo" proposal, Rep. William Murphy, now the House majority leader, got up and seeing that his proposal for bingo was being defeated overwhelmingly, said: "The Chicago papers have said the hoodlums are interested in this bill. You know that can't be true or it would have more votes."

Those are not his exact words, but as near to exact as I can recall, and certainly the intent of his words.

The tragic truth is that we all knew what he was saying was correct.

The same votes which are ready to go out of their way for the race tracks are opposed to a crime commission and opposed to measures like another facing this session again: the pinball bill.

This is a measure to outlaw one particular kind of pinball machine which rerecords the replays and operates faster than a slot machine. The federal courts have ruled that it can only be used for gambling purposes and must have the federal gambling stamp. It is a machine which has been involved in disputes between criminal syndicates and allegedly has been the cause of some gangland murders. Congress recently tried to control the machine by banning interstate shipment of it. Yet Illinois is one of the few states that permits this machine to operate.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS
THURSDAY, MARCH 21, 1963

The tragedy is that what appears on the Springfield scene is only the top of the iceberg. In too many communities around the state men who should be in jail are helping to select public officials, particularly law enforcement officials.

There can be only one long-run answer—greater public interest in politics and who is elected to public office.

In the meantime, the legislature could act in some of those fields if the public would do some prodding. The defeat of both the crime commission and pinball proposals has been narrow in the last two sessions.

A victory for either or both this year would be a victory for the public.

Temper is a strange thing. It spoils children, ruins men, strengthens steel.—Anon.

Township Supervisor Office

Some weeks ago we briefly stated that we would publish a resume of the duties, powers, etc., of the township supervisor and county board.

We have spent considerable spare time since in trying to get a clear and concise picture of the office of supervisor and the county board. And, in trying to do so have found that there aren't any books in the Public Library that even begin to deal with the question. And that, in fact, there isn't any one book, pamphlet, or what-have-you that even begins to cover the subject.

However, by getting what we could from library books, from a book on Illinois Law (Mr. Ted Larson), from information from a small pamphlet put out by the county, and from questions we asked the town clerk we can present you with a few fundamental details about the office of county supervisor and the county board.

So far as giving a clear picture of the powers of the supervisor and the county board, the clearest fact that emerges is that they have the final word on an innumerable number of affairs. The supervisor is responsible for practically everything in the unincorporated areas of the township which are not specifically assigned to any other governing body. The county board rules on all county matters which are not specifically delegated to any other county office.

Election for town supervisor will be held on April 2. The supervisor is the town master for the township which he represents. In addition he is a member of the County Board of supervisors.

Salary of the supervisor of Antioch township is $4,000 by the town board of auditors. The board of town auditors is made up of the supervisor, the town clerk and three other members who are elected at large from the town. Each member of the board casts one vote and the supervisor is chairman. In Antioch the town clerk is Evelyn Van Patton, the town supervisor is Lloyd Murrie, and the other three board members are J. P. Miller, Art Hawkins and Irving Carey.

In addition to the salary of $4,000 yearly, the supervisor receives $15.00 for each County Board meeting he attends.

The supervisor receives and pays out all money raised in the town for defraying town charges, except those raised for the support of highways and bridges, and for township library purposes. He has to account to the board of auditors for all moneys received and disbursed by him in his official capacity.

As townmaster for the town, he receives requests for aid to the needy, and for entry to the County Hospital for the needy, sick, and decides the merits of the case and disburses whatever sums he feels are warranted.

As a member of the County Board, the supervisor represents his township on all county matters. He is the link between the people and county government.

The Lake County Board of Supervisors is made up of 37 supervisors and assistant supervisors, representing 18 townships.

Members of the Board are assigned to various committees to study and supervise the many different affairs of the county over which the board exercises control. These committees make reports and recommendations to the board as a whole at its regular meeting. The board then votes on the matters.

Some of the Standing Committees of the County Board are:

The Building and Grounds Committee, which supervises the maintenance, alterations and repairs of the building and grounds on the Court House Square, radio station and the Title building, and makes recommendations and supervises the construction of radio and county building facilities.

The Finance Committee, which supervises all County finances. The Highway Committee, which is responsible for all matters pertaining to roads and bridges.

The Hospital Committee, which is responsible for the Lake County General Hospital and the Youth Home. This committee examines and reports upon all bills in relation to any charitable institution. The Chairman of the Hospital Committee is a member of the Board of Health.

The County Offices Committee is responsible for matters pertaining to the County Clerk (other than Court responsibilities), Treasurer, Auditor, Recorder of Deeds, Superintendent of Schools and Supervisor of Assessments. They are responsible for matters pertaining to the assessment of real and personal property; for matters pertaining to the Map Department; for matters pertaining to the Central Service Department; for insurance on all buildings and equipment owned by the county; for all matters pertaining to Elections and Precincts.

The Purchasing Committee reports on all purchases or contracts made by the purchasing Department not exceeding $1,000.00. For expenditures over $1,000.00, bids must be taken. The committee is also responsible for the Law Library in the County Building.

The Zoning Committee is responsible for all matters pertaining to the Zoning Or-finance, the Building Code, Plans and Subdivisions, and the County Planning Committee.

The County Home Committee is responsible for the County Home and its management, the County Veterinarian, the Farmers' Institute and matters pertaining to Agriculture, the County Rabies Inspector, and supervision of construction of the County Home building facilities.

The Judiciary Committee is responsible for matters pertaining to the County Court, Circuit Court, Probate Court, County Clerk as to Court responsibilities, Circuit Clerk, Probate Clerk, Public Defender, Sheriff, State's Attorney and Coroner. They are responsible for matters pertaining to the Safety Commission, delinquent tax collections, and Justices of the Peace and Constables.

The Board votes into being additional committees as needed, such as the Forest Preserve committee.

The office of town supervisor is the most important public office in your township. The work of the County Board, in the County, has been likened to that of the office of the State Legislature in State affairs. The importance of the office, the effect it can have on your daily life and your community, deserves your careful consideration of the candidates for this important office.

Antioch Hi Soph Squad Picks Best Team Players

By Howard Shepard

After a rather slow start the Antioch Sophomore basketball team gathered momentum and rolled to a highly successful season. The squad finished in a tie for the conference championship with Lake Forest, on a record of 12 victories and 2 defeats. Their overall record was 13-5.

All three non-conference losses came against teams that either won their conference or finished second. The two conference losses came against Lake Forest and coach Bruce Stahmer said, "I believe that if we had played them later in the schedule we would have beaten them."

Stahmer also lauded the fact that none of the boys dropped out or quit during the season and there were no unexcused absences from practices.

Special honors went to Bernie Smith, Terry Schneider and Wally Henning. Smith was voted the most valuable player as the team's top scorer with 273 points. Bernie sported a .47 average from the field and made an appearance with the varsity in the regional tournament at Mundelein the last game of the season.

Terry Schneider took the honor for the Most Improved member of the squad. Schneider saw little action at the beginning of the season but came along later and accumulated enough time to earn his letter.

Wally Henning was the choice for honorary team captain. Henning was one of the squad's defensive standouts. Wally scored 101 points and gathered in 63 rebounds besides his work on defense.

Although not cited for individual honors, 6'6" Vic Rogers proved one of the team's mainstays throughout the season. Vic was the Sequoit preps' leading rebounder with 204 and second high scorer with 208 points on 77 field goals and 84 free throws.

Rogers also was one of the squad's most improved players. Varsity coach Roger Andrews will be real glad to have Vic around next year.

Other statistical leaders included Jesse Inman, most Assists (36), Vic Rogers, Highest Field Goal Percentage (51%), Highest Free Throw Percentage, Jesse Inman (70%), and Wally Henning, Most Hustle.

Bob Schmitz, playing in the back court, also greatly boosted his team's effort. Bob scored 132 points and accounted for 33 assists during the season. The seniors will really have to put out next year to keep this boy from a starting spot.

Other letter winners were Jim Edwards and Tom Tantlinger. Boys who completed the season but didn't receive their letter were Jim Effinger, Paul Williams, Bruce Dalgaard, Mike Lancaster, Walt Plovick, Bob Plotzke and Mike Davis.

BOATING WITH BOWMAN

THE BIRDS CAN TELL YOU THE WEATHER

By Hank Bowman (Courtesy, Sequoit Harbor)

Have you ever helmed your boat under a bridge and seen suspension lines, girders or bridge supports crowded with birds perched wing to wing? Maybe you figured they were sitting there waiting to find out how fishing was.

The weather savvy boatman knows what gives with the birds. If you don't here are some clues that'll help you to be your own weather prophet.

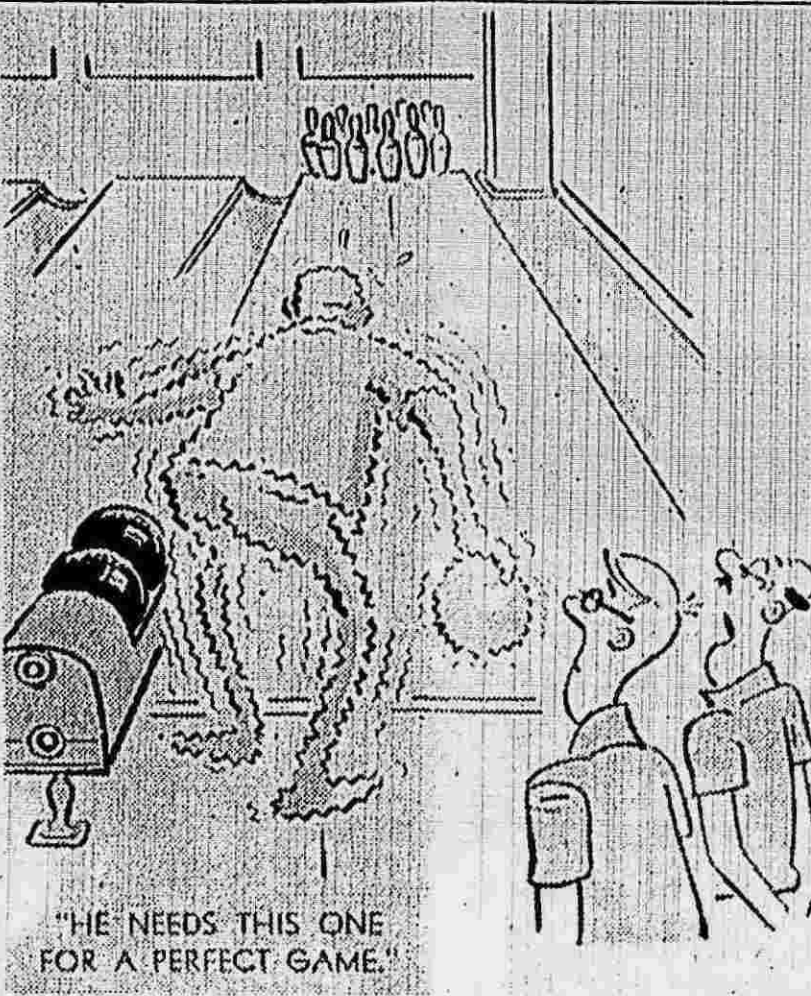

Birds perch on wire, tree limbs or any handy resting spot when bad weather is approaching. They also fly lower, work their wings harder than usual just before a downpour or a big blow. This is no old wives' tale, but fact, and it is easily explained. Low pressure air which precedes bad weather makes it hard for birds to fly.

Clouds are handy guides. High clouds traveling restlessly across the sky in the opposite direction of lower hanging clouds indicate unsettled weather.

Fleecy light textured clouds like spun candy are signs of fine weather. These are accompanied by modest breezes. Beware of those dark oily looking cloud formations for they foretell rain. High hung clouds are not likely to soak you down, no matter how grim they may appear. But when they start coasting down, better break out your foul weather gear, pull in ski tow or fishing lines and head for shelter because lowering clouds drop rain.

Storms on the North American continent generally move from West to East during the summer months. So even if you don't think you need a compass aboard, better know which way you're heading if you want to duck a shower. Lightning flashing west or northwest of your heading will mean you are heading right into a storm. If an electrical disturbance is east or south of the direction your boat is moving, ten to one you will avoid the storm.

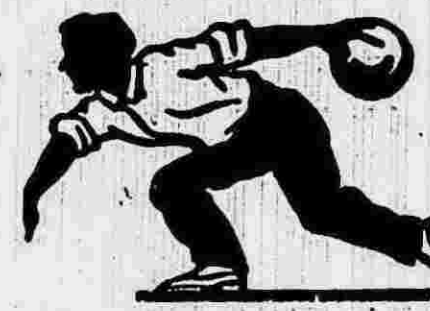

EDITOR'S BEATITUDES

An Editor's Beatitudes: Blessed are they who do not expect the editor to know everything — and tell him when over an interesting event occurs — for they shall have a better newspaper for it. . . . Blessed are they who get their copy in early, for they shall occupy a warm spot in the editor's heart. . . .

Blessed are they who advertise, for they shall have faith in their business, and their prosperity shall increase many fold. . . . Blessed is the woman who sends a written account of a party or wedding, for she shall see the details and names of her guests recorded correctly. . . . Blessed art they who do not think they could run a newspaper better than the editor runs it — yes, three blessed are they, for there are so few of them. Author Unknown. —Onargo Leader Review.

Joe Martinucci stood out this week with his heavy strike thunder, with a 666 pin blast good for the fourth best series this season. Runner-up on the scoring list was his teammate, Ed Las, with a whopping 585, and a 2 game sweep by Roepenack's over Rudolph Turkey Farm (Rich Jacobsen 599).

The Colonial quintet, led by Veterans Earl Hogan and Ray Nastrucci, 583 and 577, kept its flickering title hopes alive with a clutch 2-1 victory over Dortmund Inn (R. Heming 571).

Solid pin thumping by Stan Binkowski's 592 and Bob Bywell's 568 led the Charlie's Channel Inn to a three game sweep over Knapp Shoes.

El-Mar's pulled within 3 games of Roepenack's by taking a pair from Gibbs & Jensen. Leading El-Mar's strong support was Bob Morton with 567. Bill Christianson had a 257 for the losers.

In the other team duels, Beauti-Vue Products scored a 2 game victory over Slid Inn while Haydon Homes gained a 2-1 verdict over Dalgaard's IGA.

With 6 nights of bowling left we find Roepenack's Masonry on top by 3 games.

JUST LIKE OLD MAN RIVER

If you want a truck that does its work without yelling for attention all the time, buy a "new reliable" Chevrolet.

You have to take care of it; it's a machine. But this isn't a full-time activity. The clear idea is that the truck works for you, not vice versa.

The way to build such a truck is to put more quality into it. For example, Chevrolet doesn't build one type of suspension system for all sizes of trucks. Chevrolet designs suspension systems to fit your need. The light-duty type is strong on comfort. Another kind for heavier trucks stiffens up as you increase your load and vice versa. Make sense? Conventional pickups have double-wall construction in cabs, doors, lower side panels. Roofs are insulated. Body floors are select wood, not metal. Tailgate chains are wrapped in rubber. If you'd like to examine or drive a new '63 Chevrolet truck, just call us. We'll be right over.

Great Lakes Plans Armed Forces Day

A Marine colonel will be project officer for the 1963 Armed Forces Day open house at the world's largest naval training center.

Colonel Harold C. Boehm, Commanding Officer of the Great Lakes Marine Barracks, will be project officer. It has been announced by Captain Martin A. Shellabarger, Commander of the Great Lakes Naval Training Center. Colonel Boehm will coordinate planning for an open house on Saturday, May 18, when the public will be invited to the 26,000-man base for a full day of tours, exhibits and special events. Other naval commands located at Great Lakes have been invited to participate in the Center's Armed Forces Day program. They include the District Headquarters, the Naval Hospital, Naval Supply Depot and the Electronics Supply Office.

If tradition holds and the weather permits, the first outdoor recruit graduation review of the season will be held here on Armed Forces Day.

Held by Presidential Proclamation, Armed Forces Day is celebrated each year in May by the Armed Forces to report to the American people on the nation's defense program.

Armed Forces Day emphasizes the concept that our freedom and national security depend on the power which comes from teamwork and national unity. "Power for Peace" is so descriptive of our national effort that it has been retained since 1953 as the Armed Forces Day slogan.

Last year the open house at Great Lakes drew over 25,000 visitors who saw more than 1,000 recruits march in their graduation review, heard top Navy bands, took boat and fire engine rides, watched movies, looked at special exhibits, listened to the Blue-Jacket choir, and rode Navy buses on tours of the Great Lakes military complex.

Coldest Winter Since 1903-04

Nobody needs to tell northern Illinois residents that it has been a long, cold winter. But just how cold it really was is pointed up by information received from Northern Illinois Gas Company and verified by the U. S. Weather Bureau's statistics for Chicago.

This past winter—December, January and February—was the coldest in this area since the winter of 1903-04, according to NI-Gas weather records. In fact, those three months were more than 31 per cent colder than normal—normal being the 1851-00 average.

A message to men who work in air-conditioned comfort (and wives who'd like to)

You can have Whole-House Electric Air Conditioning in the average 6-room home for as little as 50¢ a day.
(This includes maintenance as well as operating costs.)

When hot, muggy weather makes you almost hate to leave your air-conditioned office for home, think how your wife feels! She's had to put up with this discomfort all day.

Nowadays there's something you can do about it. It's called Whole-House Electric Air Conditioning, and the cost is a lot lower than most people guess.

For instance, to have it installed in the average 6-room home usually costs from about $800 to $900. Operating costs will vary, but 50¢ a day for operation and maintenance over a period of 120 days is close to the average.

Electric air conditioning is simple, doesn't require water. It adds to the desirability and market value of your home. You get a lot besides cooling. Air throughout the house is crisp, free of excess humidity. A filter in the system removes dust, and up to 98% of the pollens, from the air.

To find out exactly what Whole-House Electric Air Conditioning would cost in your home, get in touch with the dealer, distributor, or department store nearest you. The contractor you choose will be glad to give you a free estimate and financing is easy to arrange.

Come and enjoy an evening of mirth and a trip into make-believe, on April 19 and 20, at the Lake Villa grade school gym at 8 p.m. The play is something of wonder and admiration of those who will be unfolding the story. The set designer has to use his talents to make the scene believable to take you, the audience, into the hour of make believe. Hours are spent in preparation and setting up the set. Bob Smith, set designer, will amaze you in the product that will be seen. Other workers to be congratulated are the helpers in lighting, sound effects, the actors and the prompter. The Senior MYF are hard at work making posters for the play. Tickets are now for sale from church members. Come and go to the land of make believe for fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kidera returned from a ten day combined business trip and vacation at Atlanta, Georgia.

Blue Cross Membership Drive

March 1 marked the beginning of another enrollment drive in Blue Cross and Blue Shield through the Lake County Health Improvement Association, for all eligible county residents.

At their dinner meeting at the Blon Venue, March 14, HIA president Raymond Flood told directors the plans to make available another opportunity to non-members to secure this health care protection for themselves and their families.

Principal speaker of the evening was Mrs. Irene James, Administrator of Conde Memorial Hospital and she told how hospital costs have risen in recent years, and the reasons for it.

Present at the meeting was Eric E. Anderson, Farm Bureau president, Mrs. Norris Roberts, Home Bureau Chairman and H. E. Schumacher, Rural Manager for Blue Cross and Blue Shield.

To be eligible for membership through HIA, an applicant must be a resident of Lake County, living on a farm or in a small town, self employed or working for a firm that employs less than ten persons.

Unexpected hospital and doctor's bills for a really serious illness or accident are an all too frequent event. They can cause near financial disaster to many folks, and because Blue Cross and Blue Shield membership provides such liberal assistance, when long hospitalization and intensive medical treatment are required, HIA is pleased to be able to bring these outstanding health care plans to friends and neighbors through these annual enrollment campaigns, said Flood.

Every eligible Lake County resident who does not have the realistic health care protection of these plans is urged to take advantage of this opportunity by joining Blue Cross and Blue Shield through the HIA during this special campaign, which ends April 1, stated Flood.

More information may be obtained by calling the HIA office at BA 3-8471 or Antioch Township Director, Mrs. Emmet King, 395-0573 or the director in your township.

If at first you don't succeed, you are like most other people.

McClory Supports Bill Honoring Churchill

Congressman Robert McClory (Republican of Lake Bluff) joined in support of the bill passed this week conferring Honorary American Citizenship on Sir Winston Churchill.

In his remarks prepared for the Congressional Record, Congressman McClory declared:

"I am proud to support the legislation honoring Sir Winston Churchill as an honorary citizen. In addition to the great service which Mr. Churchill has rendered to Great Britain and to the entire British Empire, he has contributed substantially to greater understanding between our nation and the other English speaking peoples around the world. Grant High News Notes

In preparation for registration of the 1963-64 freshman class the Grant High School Guidance Service Department headed by Miss Irene DeLaby is administering placement tests March 11, 12 and 13. The tests will yield scores in the areas of language arts achievement, arithmetic achievement and reading achievement. An intelligence quotient will also be obtained.

Along with teacher recommendations the scores will aid in placing students in the most suitable high school courses.

Later in the spring members of the Guidance Services Department will meet with students and parents. Together they will complete the schedule of classes for the freshman year.

The tests will be given to students of Big Hollow, Lotus, Lake Villa, St. Bede's and St. Joseph's on March 11, to students from Gavin on March 12, and to students from the Fox Lake school on March 13.

On March 14, some 35 Grant High School mathematics students participated in a contest sponsored jointly by the Mathematics Association of America and Society of Actuaries.

The contest has as its purpose the stimulation of interest in mathematics and fields of endeavor requiring mathematics as a background. Mr. Dale Yingst, chairman of the Mathematics Department supervised the contest which he says involved some of the toughest, most interesting and most rewarding problems possible.

Several worthwhile awards were made to high scoring students.

GOODBYE WINTER ?

We certainly hope so! As friends and neighbors, we're as fed up with bitter cold weather as you are.

As members of your Northern Illinois Gas Company, we're proud of the service our people have given our customers during the abnormally cold winter. Through long-range planning and investment in storage and distribution facilities, we've been able to bring you the uninterrupted comfort and convenience of gas heat—despite record-breaking low temperatures.

That's one reason more and more people like you will be heating with gas next winter. The other reason, of course, is that gas costs less than any other automatic heat. And now gas heat is even more economical, thanks to recent Company and pipeline supplier rate reductions and refunds.

To be sure that you have all the gas you need, whenever you need it, we're continuing to make extensive investments in the development and expansion of our facilities.

Although next winter may not be as severe as this past one, we at Northern Illinois Gas Company must plan ahead to meet your heating needs, no matter how great they may be.

A "white elephant" table, where a quarter will go a long way. Even the Men's Club will have a "rummage" table.
